

VitaMom

This infusion is designed to relieve the symptoms of morning sickness. It combines IV hydration with B6 and anti-nausea medicine. According to recent FDA guidelines, the components of this infusion are safe for use in pregnancy. Consultation with your OB/GYN is recommended prior to scheduling.

0.9% Normal Saline 2000 ml of fluids.

B6 (Pyridoxine) plays an important role in healthy metabolism, nerve functions, skin health and increasing overall energy. It is also FDA approved for the treatment of nausea/vomiting in pregnancy.

Zofran is a prescription strength anti-nausea medication. This drug is highly effective at reducing the severe effects of nausea and vomiting. Generally well tolerated, may cause mild drowsiness. It is also FDA approved for the treatment of nausea/vomiting in pregnancy.

Vita-Fuse